

Supporting Inclusive Resource Development (SIRD)
East Africa
TRAINING PROGRAM
2019

THE CANADIAN
BAR ASSOCIATION

Global Affairs
Canada Affaires mondiales
Canada

LAW SOCIETY OF KENYA

Tanganyika
Law Society

UGANDA LAW SOCIETY

Canadian “Mining Agreement” Case Study

- Canada is not Africa
- A brief comment on land rights of Indigenous peoples in Canada
- Case Studies
 - Baffinland/Mary Lake
 - Northwest Territories NICO Project

Canada is not Africa

Rights of Indigenous Peoples in Canada

- Royal Proclamation of 1763
- Honour of the Crown
- Section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982
 - recognizes aboriginal and treaty rights of Indians, Inuit and Metis peoples
 - Ceded lands (treaties) and land claims agreements
 - Crown duty of consultation, accommodation

Why Impact Benefit Agreements?

- Implementation of Environmental Site Assessment mitigation obligations
- Satisfaction of consultation and accommodation obligations
- Acquiring social licence/community cooperation to operate
- Community benefits

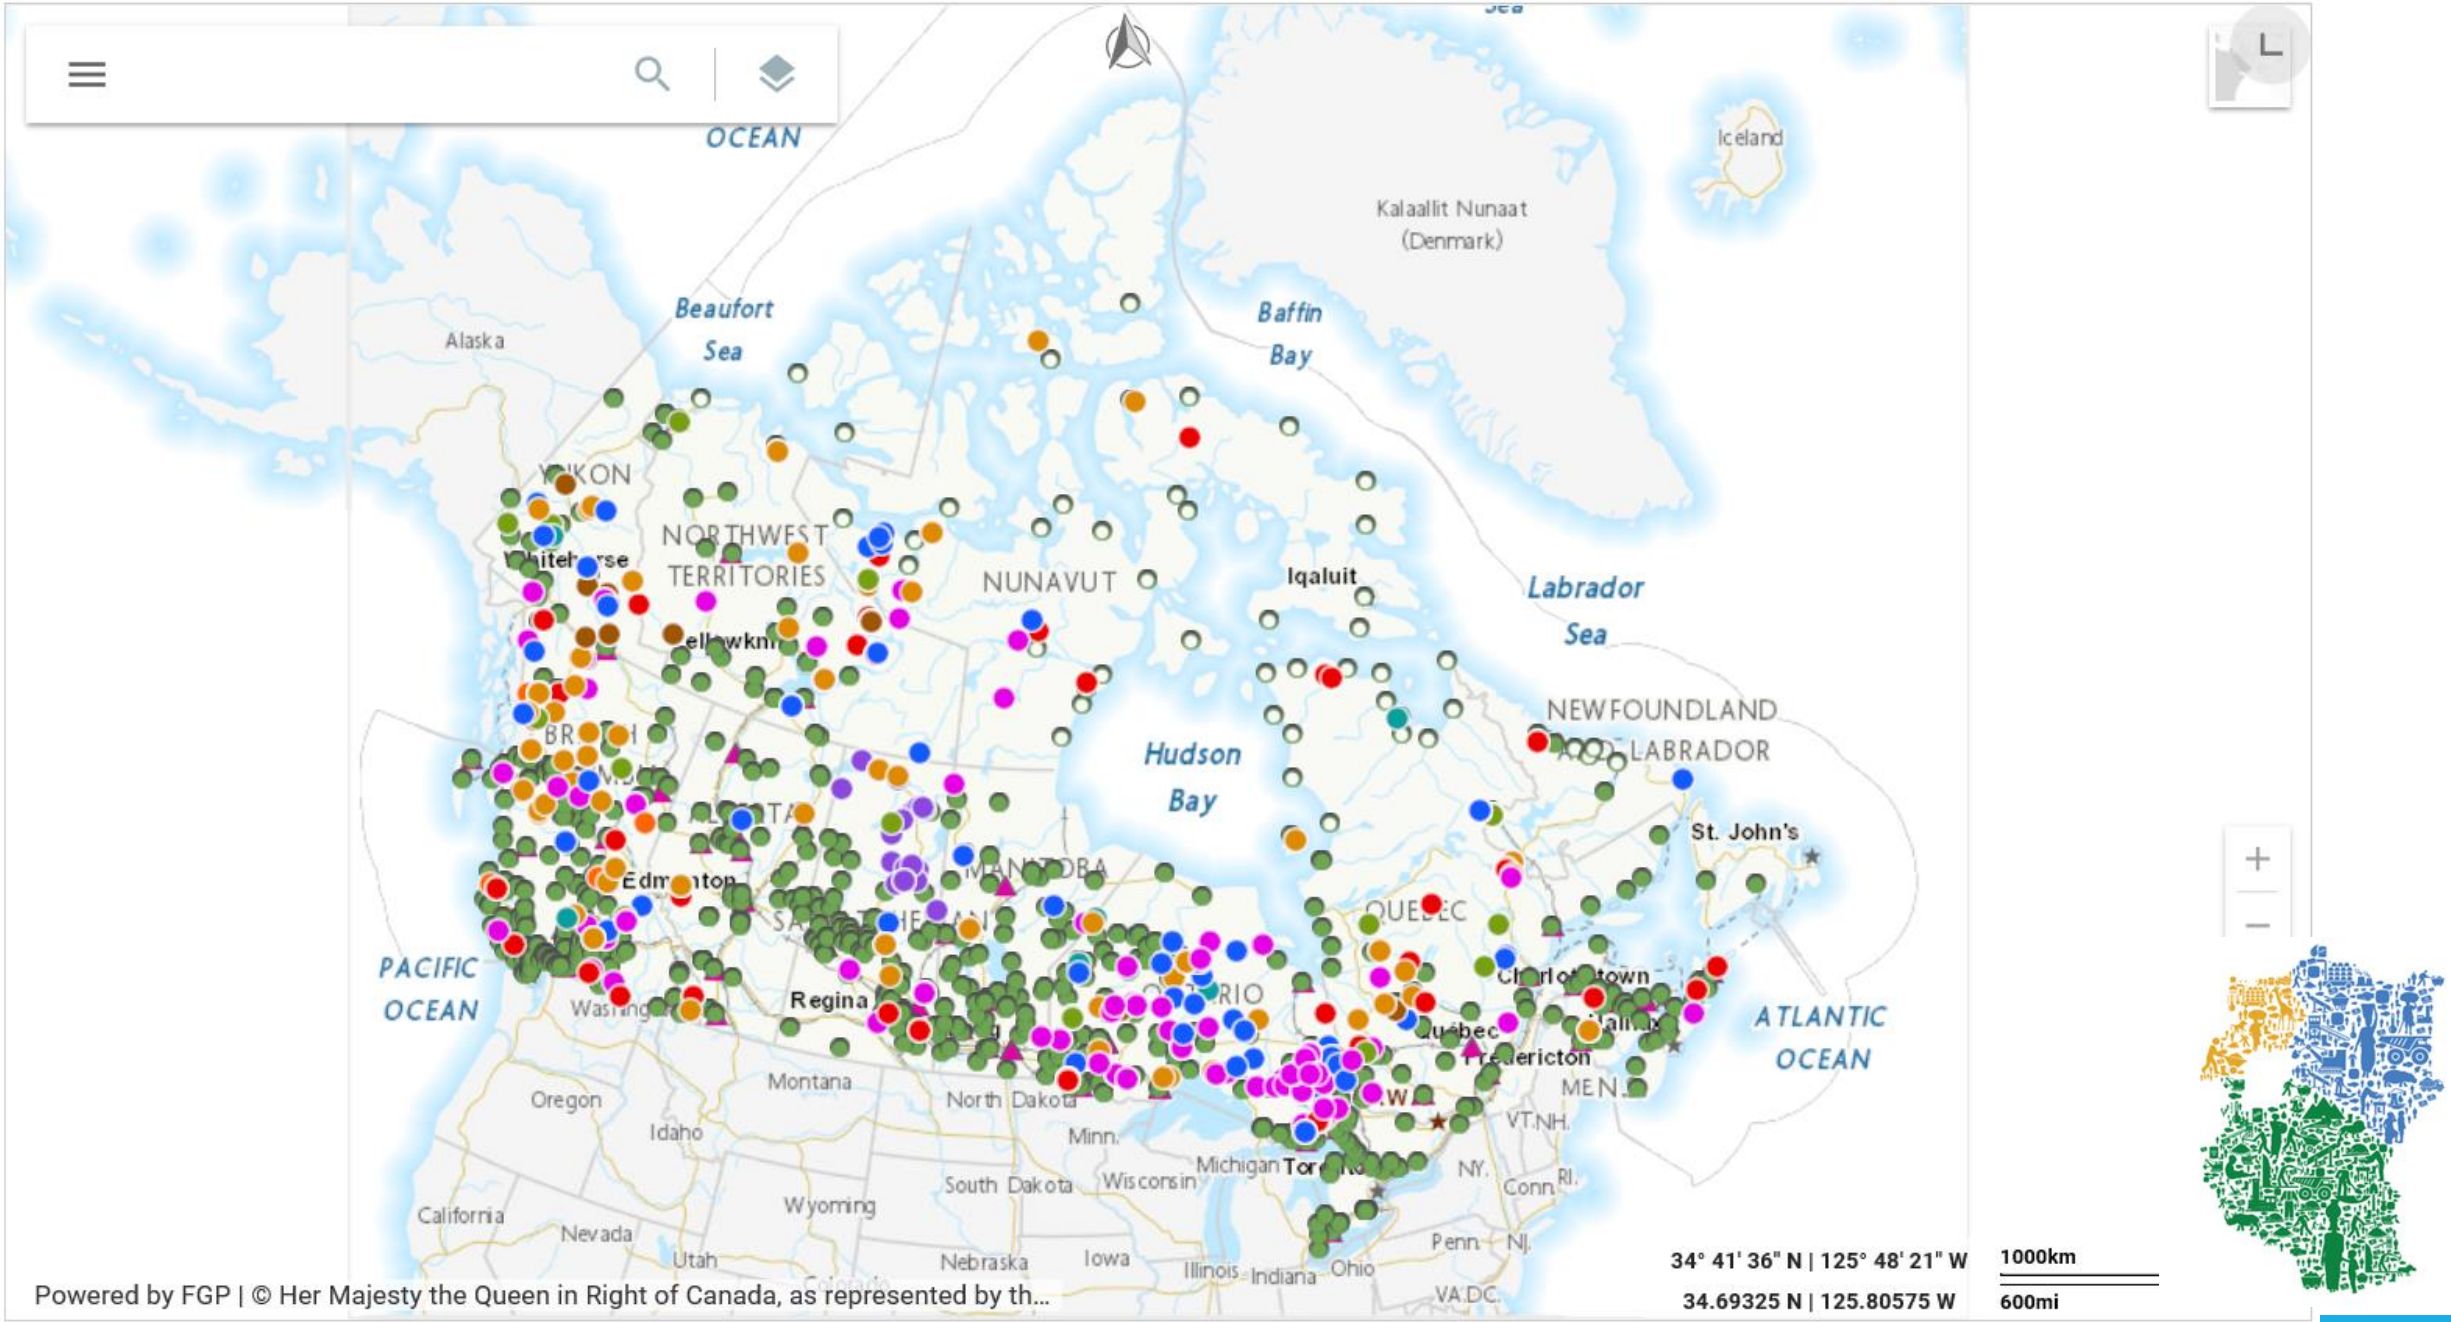

Treaties of Canada

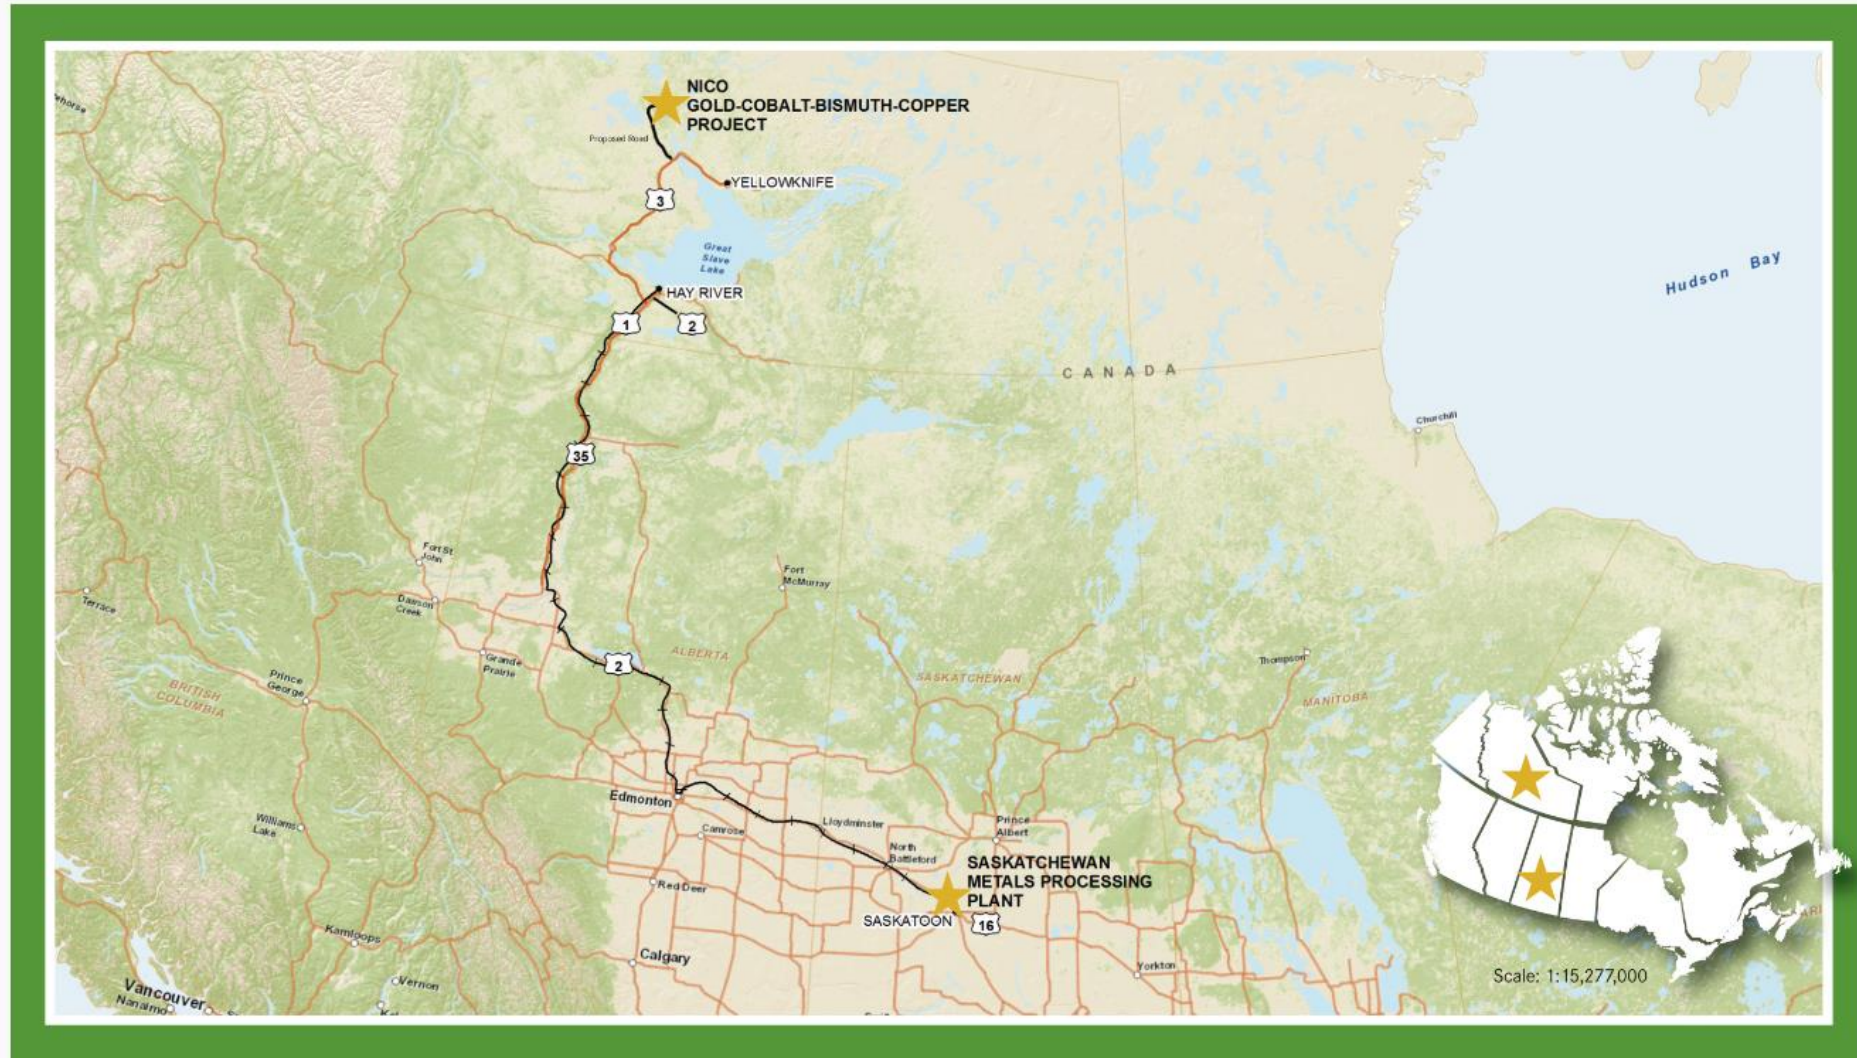

Source:
http://www.aadnc-aandc.gc.ca/DAM/DAM-INTER-HQ/STAGING/texte-text/htoc_1100100032308_eng.pdf

Powered by FGP | © Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Canada, as represented by th...

The NICO mining project

NICO Mine Agreement – Key terms

- Financial participation
- contracting opportunities
- Employment
- Working conditions
- Project monitoring and mitigation

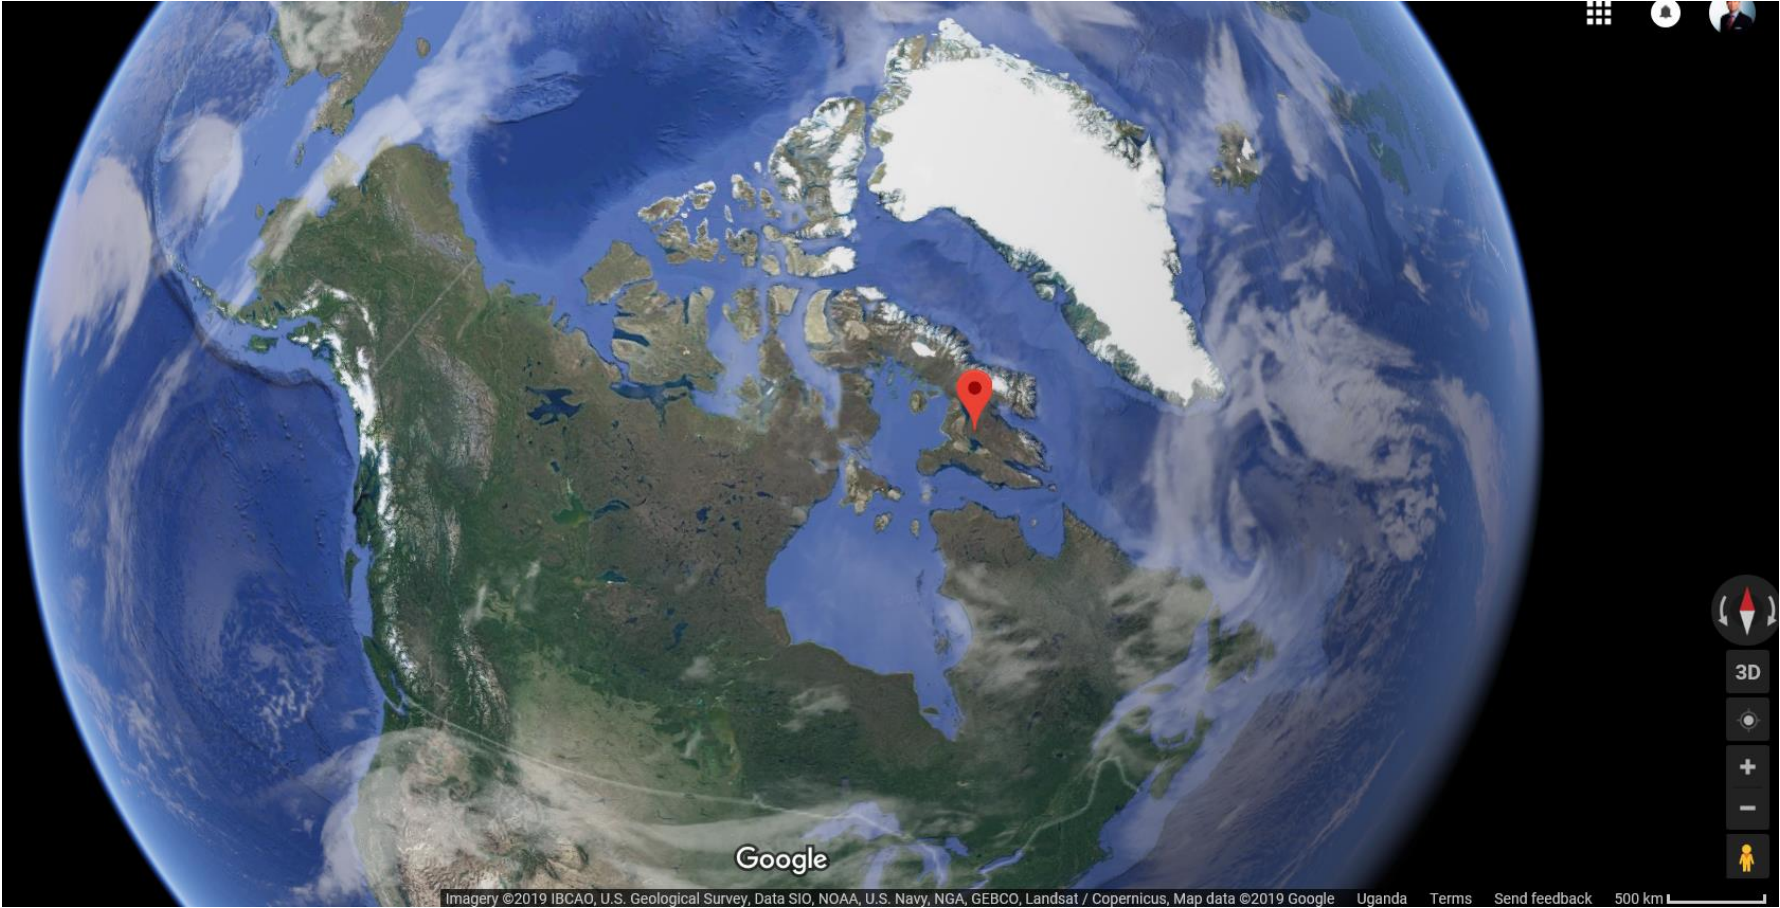

NICO Mine Agreement and Women

- support services for women and single mothers, child care services and parenting training) for mine employees and their immediate family
- FML will aim to have at least half of its Educational Awards recipients awarded to women
- develop and offer a student employment program and aim to have at least half of its placements filled by women
- support and encourage the participation of women on an equal basis with men in all aspects of work related to the NICO Project

NICO Mine Agreement- Promoting Women

- a. work with the specified organizations to promote women in trades and mining occupations
- b. develop specific strategies for the employment of Indigenous and other northern women including on the job training, further training, work experience, performance reviews, coaching and other activities
- c. offer scholarships and awards to female NWT Students related to mining or in discipline areas where FML has had difficulty recruiting Indigenous Persons or NWT Resident
- d. incorporate female role models into its promotional campaigns
- e. involve female employees in company promotional activities at site and in communities as role models
- f. from time to time, offer tours of the NICO Project directed at women potentially interested in mining industry and related career opportunities
- g. training programs and personal development strategies for women who may not possess all of the requisite skills and knowledge for particular positions.

Mary River mine project

Mary River Agreement

- Mutual benefit
- Financial participation
- Inuit participation
- Workplace preparedness
- Executive committee

Mary River agreement

- Employment and training
- Inuit content and employment
- Community support
- Local engagement in stewardship
- Mitigation
- Wildlife compensation
- Carving stone

Questions/Discussion

